▼ Biography

Steven M. Hogan is a shareholder with the firm and practices in the areas of commercial litigation and State and Federal tax law. Mr. Hogan's litigation practice focuses on resolving commercial disputes among businesses. He has represented both plaintiffs and defendants in commercial litigation matters.

In his tax practice, Mr. Hogan represents businesses and individuals faced with assessments or audits from the Florida Department of Revenue and the IRS. He advises clients and their accountants on "best practices" in complying with Florida and Federal tax law. Mr. Hogan writes the "Florida Tax Today" column in State Tax Notes. He has served three terms as a Director of the State Tax Division of the Tax Section of The Florida Bar.

Mr. Hogan is an adjunct professor at the Florida State University College of Law, co-teaching an Estate Planning seminar.

Before joining the firm, Mr. Hogan served at the Florida Supreme Court as a Judicial Extern in the office of Justice Charles T. Canady. While in law school, Mr. Hogan served as Senior Articles Editor of the Florida State University Law Review.
